

Lower Mainland to get four extra MLAs

Liberals, NDP surprised at proposal to redraw electoral map to benefit urban areas NEWS A6

The Province

SPORTS
FINAL

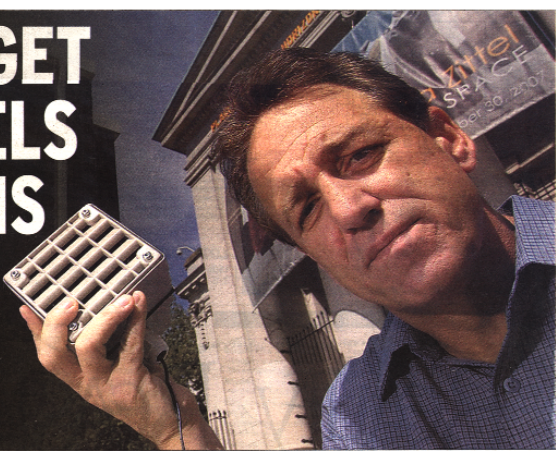

WEATHER
SUNDAY B5

Minimum include
Lower Mainland $1.25
$1.00 PER COPY

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA | THURSDAY, AUGUST 16, 2007 | WWW.THEPROVINCE.COM

GADGET REPELS
TEENS

LOITERERS TARGETED:
Local schools,
stores report security success with high-pitched noise device
NEWS A3

Mike Gibson demonstrates a high-frequency Mosquito teen-repellant device yesterday outside the Vancouver Art Gallery, where it drew a mixed reaction. GERRY KAHNEMAN - THE PROVINCE

10 things we love
about the PNE
Yes, pig races and superdogs are on Stuart Derdeyn's list
E-LIST C3

Smart moves give big returns to B.C.
Kick-returner Ian Smart sets up Lions' offence
SPORTS A53

Out of a Limb

Fundraising cycling event is designed for both able-bodied cyclists and disabled athletes. Proceeds benefit G.F. Strong Rehab Hospital. • Sept. 9-15 • For more info or to sign up, go to www.outofalimb.com

Dinosaur Show

Massive, interactive dinosaur show features two life-size interactive animatronics dinosaurs, modelled from North American fossils plus a Jurassic Park themed fountain show. • Aberdeen Centre, Richmond • Until Sept. 15 • www.aberdeencentre.com

Free Watershed Tours

Free public watershed bus and walking tours of two of the region's most scenic watersheds — Capilano and Coquitlam. • Capilano tours run Thursday through Saturday until Sept. 15. Coquitlam tours run Sunday until Sept. 16. • Pre-registration required, 604-432-6430, toureg@gvrd.bc.ca

Fraser River Walking Tours

Fully narrated, 45-minute walking tour along New Westminster Quay Boardwalk • Fraser River Discovery Centre, 788 Quayside Dr., New Westminster • Every Thursday-Sunday, 1:30 p.m. • 604-521-8401

Vancouver Chinatown Night Market

A shopping extravaganza featuring Asian traditional handicrafts, fashionable gifts, and ethnic snacks. • Between Main & Columbia St. • Every Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 6:30 p.m.-11 p.m. • 604-682-8998

Richmond Night Market

Offers a sampling of Asian street markets, complete with the bustling crowds, exotic treats and great deals. Features 400 vendors and 65 food